                <h1>Brand New Stores Opening Up</h1>
        </head>
        <body>
                A mile away from my house there are multiple stores opening up for the public. They are going to be located in Mission Hills CA. They include menchies, target, a shoe shop, and a restaurant.  This is great because around my neighborhood there are no stores anywhere near us. This is why it's great news to hear because we need some groceries and food and other stuff to buy if we are out of supplies. These stores will come in handy cause I know that everyone around my neighborhood will come and visit to buy what they need. There might be more stores opening to but I am not sure what other stores they will construct there.
